

5 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT THERÉSE NEAIMÉ

- 1 Born in Stockholm, Therése Neaimé is the daughter of a father of Lebanese origin and a Swedish mother.
- 2 Neaimé began to dance at the age of 6. She has toured the world as a background singer and dancer with several international artists. In California, she also studied at the Musicians Institute perfecting her skill as a singer/songwriter and performer. As a dancer, Neaimé has had appearances in several music videos on MTV. She can also be seen on the ever-popular dance party television show Soul Train (USA) as a regular dancer.
- 3 She began her singing career at the age of 15 with the Stockholm East Gospel Choir. After which she began taking singing lessons from world-renowned vocal teacher, Susanna Hultén. During 2003-2004 Neaimé got signed as one of five songwriters in top international producer Jorgen Elofsson's team (Britney Spears, Westlife, Kelly Clarkson etc). In the spring of 2004, Neaimé landed one of her songs on the soundtrack of the Swedish movie Language of Love.

- 4 Her debut album Livin' will be released on her own record label Future Records in early spring 2006. The album will be distributed by Music Master in the Middle East.
- 5 Her first single "Color of Love", which is currently playing on several radio stations in Lebanon and the Middle East, has started to get recognition in the region.

DIANA RECOMMENDS

I'M NOT DEAD PINK

Not only has she returned with a new album, but she's back with attitude! On her forthcoming album, I'm Not Dead, Pink definitely shows how much she has progressed into a great musician.

She takes us to a place we always knew she could go - her soul. This album is very honest and emotional, with lyrics about her experiences with childhood, celebrities, friends and of course, love. On the track "Stupid Girls", she disses the cult of exercise-obsessed, calorie fearing, breast-augmented human Barbie dolls everywhere. On "Dear Mr. President" she tackles war-mongering politicians. And on "Conversations With My 13 Year Old Self" she addresses teen angst. This is a fabulous album, and Pink will definitely slap you on the head with this one!

SHOW YOUR BONES

YEAH YEAH YEAHS

Show Your Bones is the second album from this New York-based group, and is already getting great reviews. Most of the tracks have catchy choruses and driving beats.

If you've been a fan from the beginning, then you're not going to be disappointed, and if you don't know the Yeah Yeah Yeahs, now's definitely the time to jump on the bandwagon! Check out the great tracks "Gold Lion" and "Mysteries". There is a nice booklet that comes with the album. It contains pictures of different handmade flags, envelopes that someone has drawn on with some interesting personal art and a thank you note to everyone that created a flag.

AMORE ANDREA BOCELLI

Almost ten years ago Andrea Bocelli exploded onto the international music scene with Romanza, and has since sold nearly 50 million albums worldwide. With his latest album Amore, Bocelli chose to infuse beloved pop classics with his trademark passion. The track listing includes reinterpreted songs spanning musical eras from the 1920s to the 1980s, in Italian, Spanish and French. Featured songs include such Latin American classics as "Besame Mucho", "Pero Te Extraño" and "Jurame"; such all-time Italian classics as "Estate" and "Canzoni Stonate"; the timeless French standard "Les Feuilles Mortes" and the popular English song "Can't Help Falling in Love". To perform these songs, not only has Bocelli enlisted the help of a stellar lineup of the world's finest instrumentalists, but he has also chosen to duet with such renowned artists as Stevie Wonder, Christina Aguilera and Kenny G. With a mix of Latin and Italian flavours topped with Bocelli's unique voice, Amore is a great library addition for music fans.